2. INTRODUCTION

As a private body we have compiled this manual, not only to comply with the provisions of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000, but also with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. We strive to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in our operational environment by giving effect to the right to have access to information that is in our possession, and which will assist members of the public in the exercise and protection of their rights. Inside this manual you will be able to view the categories of information which we possess. You will also be guided on the correct procedure to follow should you require access to any of this information.

3. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

The purpose of this PAIA Manual is to assist the public to –

- 3.1 confirm the categories of records held by a body which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 3.2 have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;

- 3.3 know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 3.4 access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 3.5 know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 3.6 know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.7 know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.8 know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 3.9 know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 3.10 know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

5. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE PAIA AND HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE GUIDE

- 5.1. The Regulator has, in terms of Section 10(1) of PAIA, as amended, updated, and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA (the “Guide”), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.
- 5.2. The Guide has been published in all the official languages as per Regulation 3(1) under Government Gazette 45057 dated 27 August 2021.
- 5.3. The aforesaid Guide contains the description of-
- 5.3.1. the objects of PAIA and POPIA;
- 5.3.2. the postal and street address, phone, and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of -

- 5.3.2.1. the Information Officer of every public body, and
- 5.3.2.2. every Deputy Information Officer of every public and private body designated in terms of Section 17(1) of PAIA¹ and section 56 of POPIA²;
- 5.3.3. the manner and form of a request for -
 - 5.3.3.1. access to a record of a public body contemplated in section 11³; and
 - 5.3.3.2. access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50⁴;
- 5.3.4. the assistance available from the IO of a public body in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- 5.3.5. the assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- 5.3.6. all remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging-
 - 5.3.6.1. an internal appeal;
 - 5.3.6.2. a complaint to the Regulator; and
 - 5.3.6.3. an application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body;

² Section 56(a) of POPIA- Each public and private body must make provision, in the manner prescribed in section 17 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, with the necessary changes, for the designation of such a number of persons, if any, as deputy information officers as is necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities as set out in section 55(1) of POPIA.

³ Section 11(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to a record of a public body if that requester complies with all the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

⁴ Section 50(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if-

- a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- b) that person complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and
- c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

9. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

9.1. Purpose of Processing Personal Information

Royal Hospitality Services (Pty) Ltd (hereinafter the “Operator”) business is to operate a Share Blocks Scheme (hereinafter the “Company”) in respect of the property owned by the Company in accordance with the Share Blocks Control Act and the Property Time-Sharing Control Act, in terms whereof a Shareholder(s) (hereinafter the “Data Subject”) is entitled to use specified parts of the property/building(s) in accordance with the Use Agreement entered into by and between the Data Subject and the Company.

It is in terms of this contractual relationship that the Company has legally obtained [with consent] the personal information of the Data Subject. In execution of the Company's contractual obligations towards the Data Subject, the Company has appointed the Operator and its personnel in an administrative capacity to execute various functions on behalf of the Company, which required the Company to share personal information with the Operator. Such functions include but are not limited to inter alia the following;

- Liaising with the data subject in relation to his/her/its timeshare portfolio and related matters;
- Liaising with the Company officials in relation to corporate governance related matters;
- Liaising with service providers in relation to operational requirements;
- Liaising with government organisations in relation to any legislative requirements.

In this respect the Company has entered into an Operators Agreement with the Operator as is required in terms of Section 21(1) of the POPIA, which will ensure the safe processing and safeguarding of the Data Subject's personal information by the Operator.

The Operator also employs various employees, whom are data subjects, to fulfil its contractual mandate with the Company. The personal information of such employees is collected as part of its employment contract with the Operator and similarly safeguarded as required in terms of the POPIA.

9.2. Description of the categories of Data Subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto

- Anti-virus and Anti-malware Solutions;
- Firewalls;
- Password protections;
- Access controlled servers

The adoption of:

- IT Use and Security Policy;
- Employee Privacy Policy;
- Data Breach and Reporting Policy

10. REQUESTING PROCEDURE

Notwithstanding the fact that the purpose of the Act is to give effect to the Constitutional Right of having access to information held by a public or private body, access to records may be refused if disclosure would constitute an action for breach of the duty of secrecy owed to a third party or is prohibited by the Act.

An applicant who has provided adequate proof of identity wanting access to the records must complete the necessary request Form 2 that is available at the offices of Royal Hospitality Services (Pty) Ltd or can be accessed on <https://inforegulator.org.za/paia-forms/>. The completed request form must be sent to the address, e-mail or fax number provided in this manual and marked for the attention of the Information Officer. The requesting party must state the reason for wanting the information and must pay the prescribed fee in terms of Section 23(1)(b)(ii) of POPIA.

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is requested. In such a case the requestor will be notified of the extension as well as the reason(s) therefore.

The Information Officer will inform the requester of the decision and the fees payable (if applicable) on a form that corresponds substantially with the one required in terms of the PAIA regulations.

The decision of the Information Officer is final and there is no internal appeal procedure that can be followed after a request to access information has been refused. In the event that the requestor is not satisfied with the decision he/she/it can apply to the Information Regulator or a court of a competent jurisdiction (depending on the requirements of the matter and the rules of the Regulator / the court) to take the matter further.

The abovementioned review process must be filed within the required time limits of the relevant statutory body.
